Your provider can join
The UnitedHealthcare network

You’ll save money on your covered health care expenses when your doctor or other health care provider is in-network. If your current provider isn’t part of the UnitedHealthcare network, you can help him or her become a participating provider.

All you need to do is give your provider information about how to apply to the network and he or she can take it from there. Here’s how the application process works:

1. Give your provider the application instructions

   If your provider is interested in joining the UnitedHealthcare network, give the Applying to the UnitedHealthcare Network instructions on the back of this document to your provider. Please note that there are two sections of instructions on the page: one for physicians and one for other health care providers.

2. Your doctor will work with the Network Management Department

   All doctors who apply go through a UnitedHealthcare credentialing process. Your doctor will work directly with UnitedHealthcare or a leased network partner. (Please note that the network in your area may be temporarily closed to certain doctor specialties if it already has enough doctors to serve local members.)

3. Make sure your doctor is in the network

   After the application process is completed, check to make sure that your health care provider is part of the UnitedHealthcare network. Call the dedicated customer service number on the back of your identification card or search for your doctor online at umr.com.
